AUDITORS' CERTIFICATE

February 7, 1947

We, the undersigned auditors of the Town of Jackson, hereby certify that we have examined the books and accounts of the several town officers and find them correctly cast and properly vouched.

Two irregularities in procedure were noticed, however, and have been reported to the Selectmen. First, there was no bond for the Trustees of Trust Funds. This is required by law and such bond should be issued at once. Secondly, the vouchers of the Selectmen are not being accompanied by receipts attached thereto. This also is standard procedure as covered by the state rules and regulations on town accounts and this practice should be put into effect at once also. Every voucher should have attached to it either a receipted bill, a cancelled check or a signed receipt.

Report of Superintendent

To the School Board and Citizens of Jackson:

In spite of the difficulty of securing teachers, it was possible to hire Miss Nancy Klingensmith of Jackson for grades 5 to 8 and Miss Sarah Good of Pennsylvania for grades 1 to 4. There is an increase in the number of pupils over last year's registration of 27 to 34 this year. It appears that there will be an even larger school next year.

I believe that considerable thought should be given to the installation of adequate lighting in both rooms, that some means should be found by which adequate playground equipment may be secured, and that eventually a new fence should be erected to replace the old one.

It would be to the advantage of the boys and girls to have a music instructor come to the school for a part of a day once a week. Music should, I believe, be a part of every child's education.

The school officials are again faced with the very difficult task of securing and keeping adequately trained teachers. The teacher-training schools in New Hampshire are graduating only 32 elementary teachers this year, and there will be about 200 vacancies.

Pupils from Jackson attending high school are Eleanor Davis, Raymond Abbott, grade 10; Roger Meserve and Virginia Thurston, grade 12, all at Fryeburg Academy; Gloria Dube, grade 10; Lois Flint, Rita Hodge, Chester Hayes, grade 9; and Gordon Johnson, grade 11; all at Kennett High School.

Respectfully submitted,

HAMMOND YOUNG,
Superintendent
